Hello and Greetings,

I am emailing today with some exciting news. This email is to inform you that ibaptutoring.com has been recognized as North Vancouver's recipient in the category of TUTORING. My heartfelt congratulations on this achievement.

I'm sure you are delighted to hear this news and I'm also sure you have some questions. I'm here to walk you through the process and ensure all your questions are answered. My name is Mitchell Cameron and I am the local representative for the Consumer Choice Award.

We have recently sent you a congratulations letter, please keep an eye on the mail. It will include your certificate and invitation to the Winners' Circle Luncheon.

Here are some details to get you started:

1. You are the only recognized winner in your category. This is an exclusive award.
2. You were selected by a 3rd party research firm. This is based on an AI algorithm that measures your online reputation that factors in reviews and social media interactions from YOUR CUSTOMERS. You are given a score and that score is compared against all your competitors.
3. We work to promote award-winning businesses like yours to ensure the consumers of North Vancouver know who those reputable companies are.
4. You are invited to the Winners' Circle Luncheon. This luncheon is meant to answer all your questions about who we are, what we do, and how you won. It's also a terrific opportunity to meet and rub elbows with the other business elites in North Vancouver. Here are the details of the Winners' Circle Luncheon:
